

JetPay[®] Helps WePay[®] Launch in Canada

Berwyn, PA – February 11, 2015 – JetPay[®] Payment Services, a division of JetPay Corporation (“JetPay” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ: “JTPY”), a leading provider of debit and credit card processing, payroll, HR and prepaid card services, today announced that it helped WePay[®] to successfully launch its Canadian Operations.

WePay is the leading provider of integrated payment services to crowdfunding sites, small business software and online marketplaces. WePay gives partners control over the customer experience, while shielding them from risk and regulatory exposure. JetPay is an end-to-end processor whose flexible and unique processing platform enables creative companies like WePay to bring fast, secure processing to their clients in a timely manner.

Bill Clerico, chief executive officer of WePay stated: “When we decided to expand internationally, Canada was the first market we wanted to support outside the U.S., and JetPay had the ability to help us get there quickly and successfully.” He also noted: “In the first few months, we’ve processed payments for about 8,000 merchants through JetPay’s platform. We expect our Canadian merchant base to grow as quickly as our U.S. base.”

Bipin C. Shah, Chairman and CEO of JetPay Corporation, stated: “We are excited to partner with WePay.” He continued: “They are precisely the type of creative, dynamic, fast-growing companies we service well due to our flexibility and creativity.”
